

March, 2021

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Hirofumi ANDO

Nationality: Japanese

Sex: Male

Birth day and place: 21 December 1937; Tokyo, Japan

Academic Background:

1. BA in Social Sciences, International Christian University, Tokyo, Japan, 1961;
2. MA in Political Science, University of the Philippines, Quezon City, the Philippines, 1963; and
3. Ph.D.in Political Science, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, USA, 1971.

Professional Background:

1. Research and Teaching Assistant, University of Michigan, 1963-1971;
2. Population Program Officer, Population Division, ESCAP, United Nations, Bangkok, 1971-1976;
3. External Technical Officer; Chief, Asia Division; Chief, Division of Administration; Director, Planning and Coordination Division; Director, Information and External Relations Division, United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), New York, 1971-1994;
4. Deputy Executive Director, UNFPA, New York and Assistant Secretary General of the United Nations, New York, 1994-2000.
5. Professor, College of International Relations, Nihon University, Mishima City, Japan, 2000-2005;
6. Professor, Advanced Research Institute of Sciences and Humanity (ARISH), Nihon University, Tokyo, Japan, 2005-2010 (Director of Human Development Department of ARISH, 2005-2007);
7. Director, Nihon University Population Research Institute (NUPRI), Tokyo, Japan, 2005-2007; and Deputy Director (NUPRI), 2007-2009; and Advisor, (NUPRI), 2009-2012, Tokyo, Japan, 2010-2013;
8. Senior Visiting Research Fellow, Thailand Development Research Institute, Bangkok, Thailand, 2012-2013.
9. Adjunct Professor, College of Local Administration, Khon Kaen University, Thailand, 2010 - present.
10. Editor-in-Chief, Local Administration Journal published by College of Local Administration, 2020 - present.

Other Positions or Activities:

1. President, Asian Urban Information Center of Kobe (AUICK), Kobe City, Japan, 2002 to-present;
2. Member of Board, Asian Population and Development Association (APDA), Tokyo, Japan, 2002-2011;
3. Member of Council, Asian Population and Development Association, Japan, 2011 to present;
4. Member, Scientific and Technical Advisory Group (STAG), WHO, Geneva, 2010-2016;

Awards:

1. Skidmore College Essay Contest Award, 1961;
2. University of Michigan President Award, 1971;
3. Foreign Minister's Award (Japan) for international cooperation, 2002;
4. Asian Forum of Parliamentarians on Population Award in Beijing, 2004

Selected Publications:

1. A number of technical journal articles on voting behavior in the Philippines and co-authored technical papers on population programs (including those co-authored with Prof. Gayl D. Ness of University of Michigan);
2. Co-author with Prof. Gayl D. Ness, Land Is Shrinking. Baltimore: Johns Hopkins University Press, 1985;
3. "Expanding Young Population and Socio-Political Instability" in Global Society, edited by Kazuno Aoki, Tokyo: Ashi Shobo, 2005, pp. 103-130, (in Japanese);
4. "Social and Political Implications of Expanding Young Population," in Crisis Management of Globalization, edited by Kazuno Aoki, Tokyo: Ashi Shobo, 2006, pp. 127-166. (in Japanese).